IV. PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENTS

Gattie-Blanco updated and provided an overview to the Committee on upcoming program events/meetings: Illuminate Our Pride, Annual Fireworks Sales, and Central Valley Freedom Coalition Meeting (via Zoom).

V. PROGRAM UPDATES

- Program Activity Reports
Gattie-Blanco gave a brief overview of the program reports.

Arambula inquired on City Youth Navigation to determine what the difference is on linkages versus referrals. Streets clarified linkages is a warm hand off (i.e., what MAP Point does) and referrals is providing them information about an organization.

Arambula inquired why there are zero's (0) in the Youth Shelter report, was it because the Shelter was closed? Gattie-Blanco informed the Committee there has not been any referrals for homeless youth during this reporting period. A lot can be attributed to the increase in family shelters and that students are not in in-person school. There are some upcoming changes that Gattie-Blanco and Streets have been made aware of through RHY ACT as to the population that can be served. Gattie-Blanco informed the committee we are up this year for the competitive grant and are planning to lower bed count because the definition of who can be served is changing and because of the increase in family shelters.

Arambula asked about Youth Bridge Housing and if County is paying for housing, Gattie-Blanco informed the Committee we have two contracts, 14 beds are being paid by the County and City pays for two (2) beds. The “number of days per leavers” clients can stay up to six months, during COVID some clients stayed past the 6 months too. Housing programs are pretty stable with HomePlate having a two-year program term.

Arambula inquired who is providing legal services for CVAHT. Secundino informed the Committee Centro La Familia, a Cal-OES Sub awardee, and numbers are lower due to COVID.

Streets presented an overview of Accomplishment/Challenges for Housing, Outreach and Shelters. The new Fresno City College Project HOPE program that is assisting 64 persons into getting housing. Arambula inquired if Master Lease means Fresno EOC Leases and then sub-leases to clients, Streets confirmed that is correct.

Secundino shared Evelyn Gonzalez has been promoted to Outreach Coordinator, we have received continued funding from CalOES for 2021-2022 year, as well as Slave 2 Nothing funds for emergency apartment.

Cruz gave an overview of the Accomplishments/Challenges for LGBTQ+ Center, we were awarded $58K for the network of care and LGBTQ+ Competency Training to various programs/businesses has increased. Gattie-Blanco shared the competency training is a fee for service and is not limited to anyone or organization.

Cruz shared today was the City Council’s Proclamation for the City of Fresno for Pride Month Accomplishments and Challenges. A flag raising ceremony will take place, tomorrow at City Hall. For the first time ever Fresno State University had a rainbow flag raising ceremony following last week’s Fresno City College Flag raising ceremony.

Cruz mentioned City Councils proclamation back in April, 2020 for Transgender Day of Visibility with emphasize on medical providers doing more to learn about transgender healthcare due to the lack of services in the Central Valley.

- Program Funding Activities
Gattie-Blanco gave a brief overview to the Committee.

Arambula inquired for Fresno City College housing navigations, they are paying for rent and we are providing wrap around services? Fresno City College pay rent directly to the clients, provide housing navigation and case management. Our staff work with clients to submit payment for rent, moving clients into the apartment and ensuring they are staying in the apartment while they work toward permanent housing.

VI. OTHER BUSINESS

Gattie-Blanco and Natalie Chavez will be highlighting Project HOPE at Rotary Club Meeting and how the nationwide pilot program and partnership is working. De Jesus Perez inquired “How are we reaching out to youth at rural communities to help them?” Gattie-Blanco shared City College is currently working on marketing material and even without distributing material, at one point there were 300 people on the waiting list. Gattie-Blanco will remind City College of the rural communities.

Gattie-Blanco informed the Committee when outreach is being conducted, including in rural communities, we link people to other services within Sanctuary and Support Services.

Next meeting is scheduled on September 9, 2021.

VII. PUBLIC COMMENT

None at this time.

VIII. ADJOURNMENT

IV. PROGRAM UPDATES

- Program Activity Reports
Gattie-Blanco shared CVAHT is starting to meet with clients in office.

Cruz shared LGBTQ+ Center is continuing with Art Hop activities and providing meeting space. Tutunjian suggested to invite the mural artist to the next Advisory Board meeting to showcase his art, if available.

Streets announced Poverello House is providing additional funds for outreach services.

- Accomplishments and Challenges
Tutunjian elaborated on the dedication of the new rural Food Express Bus designated as a mobile Safe Place site for youth in crisis, expanding the Sanctuary's Safe Place program. The Bus will connect with five (5) rural sites in Fresno County during the summer and winter school breaks providing free meals the kids under age 18. Outreach and food distribution will be provided by Sanctuary staff.

- Program Funding Activities
Gattie-Blanco gave an overview and shared Sanctuary is applying for new project under HUD specific to HT victims. Additionally, Project Harvest is still continuing.
