IV. PROGRAM UPDATES

- Accomplishments and Challenges
Gattie-Blanco gave an overview of program updates and shared that Homeless Services has developed a new partnership with Poverello House for outreach within the City of Fresno and will be hiring additional staff for this project. One of the newest projects, Project HOPE with Fresno City College has assisted 125 individuals/families with housing since February 2021.

Central Valley Against Human Trafficking (CVAHT) recently had staffing changes and hired two (2) new Case Manager/Advocates to fill vacant positions. Gattie-Blanco informed the committee that CVAHT has continued to provide emergency housing for two (2) individuals in an emergency apartment funded through the Slave 2 Nothing Foundation. Additionally, CVAHT has been awarded funding through OVC to provide housing assistance, in partnership with Homeless Services, specific to human trafficking victims that lack housing and will be providing rapid re-housing.

LGBTQ+ Resource Center has resumed in-person Art Hop events and started tracking individuals that enter the facility, each month averaging 500 attendees. LGBTQ has been fortunate to receive sponsorship from Gilead Sciences for November's Art Hop event. Gattie-Blanco shared that the Center's Mural in the large conference, painted by Arte Aqua Viva artists, has been completed.

- Program Activity Reports
Activity reports were previously provided to the committee.

Robles inquired on CVAHT OVC Program Activity Report what the difference in objectives "Reach individuals through Public Awareness Efforts" and "Reach individuals through Outreach Efforts" was. Secundino shared Public Awareness is efforts conducted through social media campaigns, Coalition emails and meetings, and Outreach are the tangible items that are provided through physical outreach (i.e. resource fairs and college events).

- Program Funding Activities
Gattie-Blanco provided a brief overview and highlighted LGBTQ was recently awarded Mentoring for Youth Affected by the Opioid Crisis and Drug addiction through OVC and will be partnering with Street Saints.
