Spotlight on Partnership

Last June Fresno EOC Transit System partnered with The Arc of Fresno to provide vehicle maintenance for the non-profit's 70+ADA-compliant vehicles. Transit Systems and The Arc are planning on contracting for another year of service. Under the contract, Transit Systems will provide parts at cost and mechanic services at a competitive hourly rate.

"It is wonderful to have a partnership with another non-profit who serves our community. They understand the importance of keeping our fleet of vehicles healthy and on the road. They service our vehicles timely, and we can trust their advice on the services our vehicles need. This is a partnership I see lasting a long time.”

Arc Fresno and Madera Counties Finance Director Julie Heiman.

New Hires at Fresno EOC Transit Systems

Transit System provides services including driving children to school, bus service in Madera County, transporting those with special needs, and is now in the business of wrapping buses with custom ads. The massive program of Fresno EOC has more than 150 vehicles in its fleet. Four new team members have just been hired to help to ensure the transportation needs of clients are met.

Kylie Foley will join the data collection team, supporting all aspects of data that is captured and analyzed for Transit Systems. Kylie hails from Fresno, and she looks forward to helping those in need and is thrilled to be part of the team.

March 18, 2023, was National Transit Driver Appreciation Day. Transit System was excited to show our thanks to all of our drivers by hosting a BBQ. To add to the appreciation day, a bake-off was held, and the winner was Laura Gaitan who won a pair of tickets to attend a Fresno Grizzlies game. Our next event will be a Chili cook-off in which the winner will receive two tickets to the Clovis Rodeo.

Message From Fresno EOC Transit Systems Director, Thomas Dulin

Transforming Culture in the Workplace

Culture is the character and personality of your organization. It's what makes your business unique and is the sum of its values, traditions, beliefs, interactions, behaviors, and attitudes. A positive culture is significant, especially because:

- It attracts talent. Job candidates evaluate your organization and its climate. A strong, positive, clearly defined, and well-communicated culture attracts talent that fits.

- It drives engagement and retention. Culture impacts how employees interact with their work and your organization.
- It impacts happiness and satisfaction. Research shows that employee happiness and satisfaction are linked to strong workplace culture (Source: Deloitte).
- It affects performance. Organizations with stronger cultures outperform their competitors financially and are generally more successful.

The way the leader communicates and interacts with employees, what they communicate and emphasize, their vision for the future, what they recognize, and what they expect. I for one, make every attempt to interact with each one of the Transit employees. Getting to know the person, and asking what I can do better as a leader to make Transit a better place to work.
